Forecast for Sunday 18 Sep 2022

Weather: Any early mist and fog will clear quickly, leaving a dry and bright start to Sunday. Cloud will increase from the north during the morning, but still a chance of sunny intervals through the day. Cloud breaking up again into the evening with plenty of clear spells overnight and further patches of mist and fog developing into the early hours. Continuing to feel cool in a fresh northwesterly breeze.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 90%.

Low cloud and visibility: Poor visibility in any early valley mist and fog, which may cover some slopes and summits as it lifts and clears through the morning. Cloud will generally be above the summits from midday, but may cover tops above 700m at times. Otherwise very good visibility expected.

Meteorologist's View

It will feel colder than of late, particularly near the summits, therefore extra clothing will be required including hats, gloves and waterproof outer layers. There could also be the odd patch of frost at first within sheltered spots on high ground and also within valleys.
